Dear Parents/Guardians:

Effective Monday, January 22nd, it is back to winter school uniforms for Holy Spirit School students grades 1 through 8. As of today's date, next week's forecast looks as if we're out of the deep freeze for a spell. Thus, it will be expected that all students in grades 1-8 will be in proper school winter uniform when they arrive to school starting Monday.

On another note, please visit the HSS website at www.holyspiritunionnj.org to find the full itinerary of events for Catholic Schools Week (CSW). CSW kicks-off "officially" on Sunday, January 28th, at Holy Spirit Church's 10:30 a.m. Mass. We really hope to see you and your children at the Mass. For attendance at Masses on Sunday, January 28th, please have your children in proper school winter uniform. Following the 10:30 a.m. Mass on the 28th, HSS is holding an Open House for prospective parents and current parents from 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. At 1:00 p.m. the HSA anticipates holding a pot-luck event in the Parish Hall. A Scholastic Book Fair will also be up and running in the Parish Hall. The Book Fair will run from 1/28-2/1.

As noted in my communique of 1/16/18, important CSW dates to note are:

- Tuesday, January 30th – Open House for current and prospective Pre-K and K parents; Classroom International Day – Students/parents share ethnic food and cultural background
- Wednesday, January 31st – Parents' Visiting Day, Pre-K-8, 10:30-11:30 a.m.; Parent/Student Luncheon, 12 noon-1:00 p.m.
- Thursday, February 1st – Grandparents' (Special Family Member) Afternoon, 1:00-2:30 p.m., Prayer Service in Church

We look forward to a great Catholic Schools Week 2018.

Thank you for your support!

God bless,

Armand Lamberti
